The system will allow you up to 60 minutes to submit your views.

Your contact details will not be published in the public domain, however your name and address will be provided to the applicant. The service will not accept anonymous representations, unless exceptional circumstances are provided in accordance with the guidance at the time of your original representation. Please see paragraphs 9.25-29 in the guidance for specific information. We will redact your name and address from the Licensing Sub-Committee report should the application need to be determined at a hearing, but the comments you make in the open text book cannot be redacted. This means that they will be visible to the public so please do not add any personal data such as health or financial information which could be capable of identifying you.
